

Souvenir
Valcartier Camp,
Canada.

16 Scenes from Camp Life.

We'll fight to Keep the light of freedom burning

Published by
T.H.DAVIES, 525 ST. PAUL ST.
MONTREAL.

Photo shows Field Marshall H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught, Col. the Hon. Sam. Hughes, Right Hon. Sir R. L. Borden, Prime Minister of Canada, Sir Wilfred Laurier, and Col. Williams, arriving at the Saluting Point of the Military Review, on Sunday, Sept. 6.

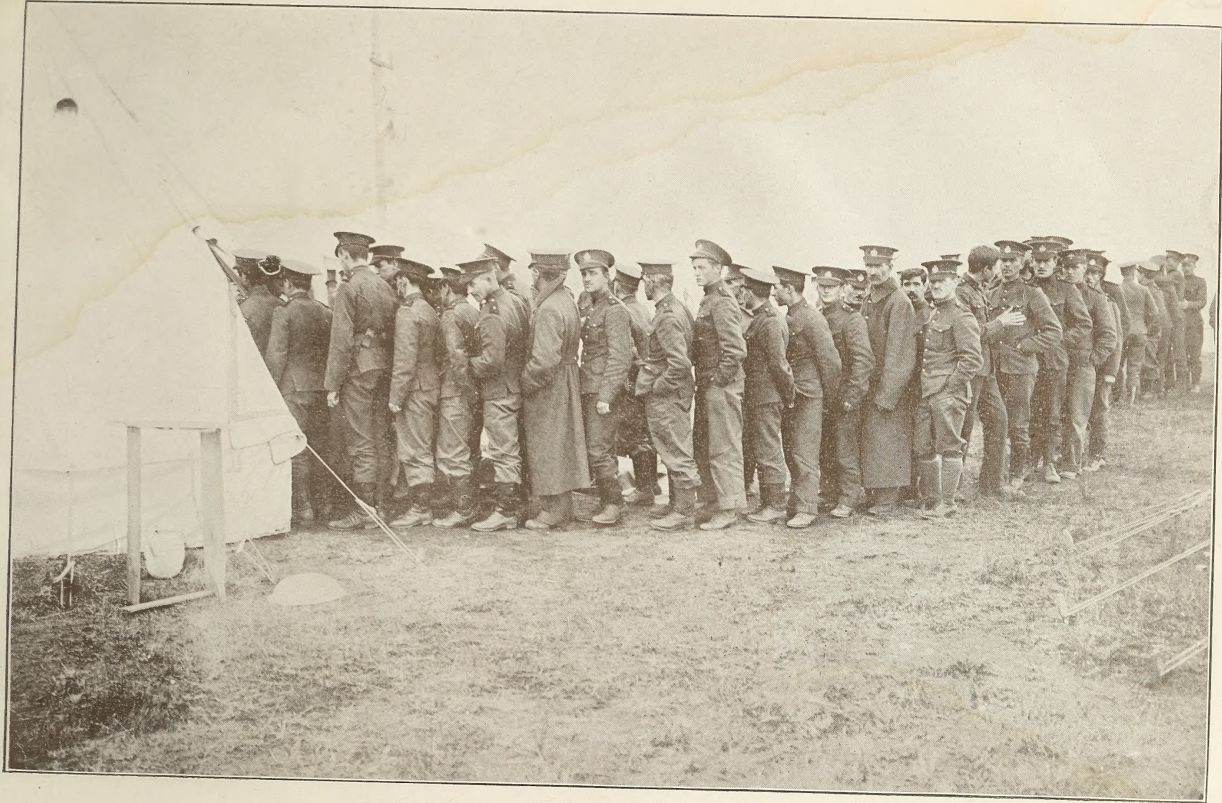

7th Battery Field Artillery (St. Catharines) crossing Pontoon Bridge.
This bridge is 300 feet long and was built by the Engineering Corps in 4 hours. This is a new record for the distance.

United States Citizen from Minneapolis applying to Col. V. A. S. Williams to go to the Front.
Left to right : Col. Williams, Col. Watson, C.O. 2nd Battalion Infantry, and Col. Turner, D.S.O., V.C., Brigadier of Division.

8th Regiment "Royal Rifles" (Quebec) lined-up on Pay-day

5th Regiment "Royal Highlanders of Canada" and "Grenadier Guards" drilling.

The Cook Tent—Cooks preparing the Soldiers' Supper.

A Dry Canteen—A Popular Attraction for the Boys.

Grenadier Guards, now First Royal Montreals, off to Rifle Practice.

Divisional Headquarters, Valcartier Mobilization Camp.

48th Regiment "Highlanders" (Toronto) drilling.

No. 1 Company First Royal Montreal (the old Grenadier Guards of Montreal) in their new Kakhi Uniforms.

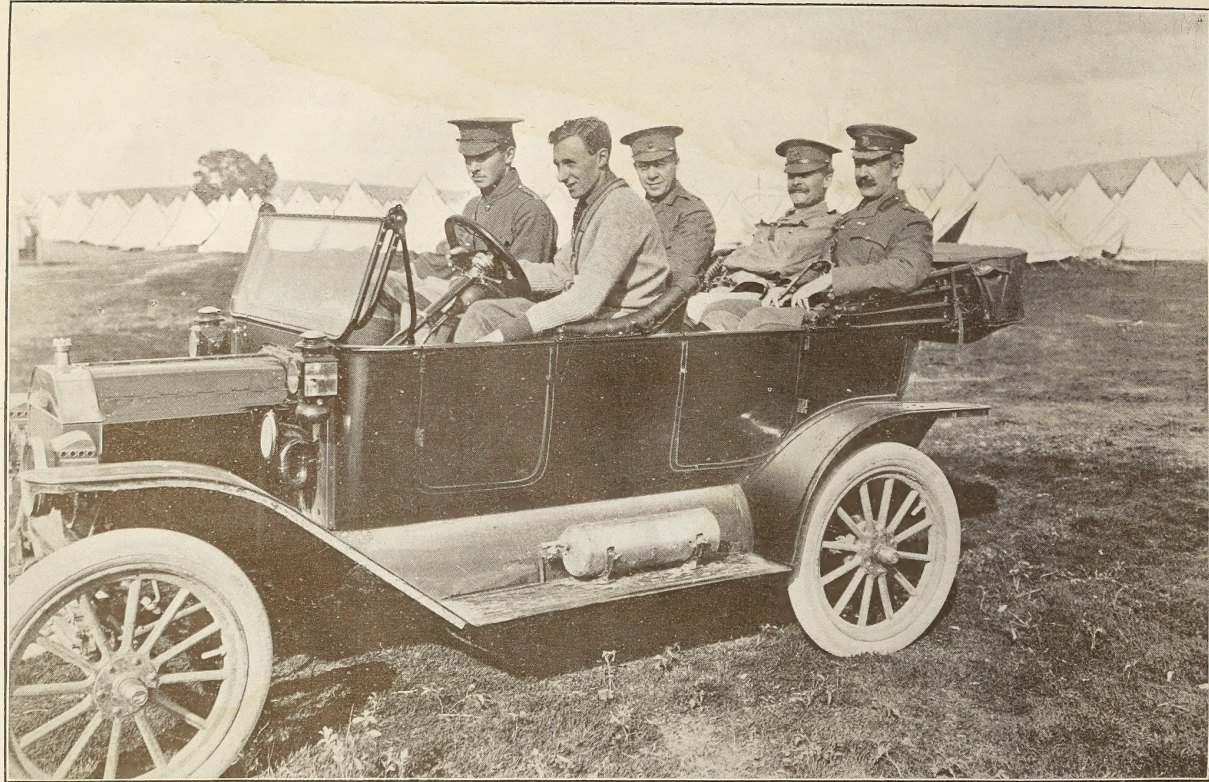

Member of the 12th "Manitoba Dragoons" shaves under difficulties.

The Pet of the Regiment—Mascot of the Royal Highlanders.

Col. Williams and Staff making Tour of Inspection.

29th Light Horse (Saskatoon) crossing Pontoon Bridge over Jacques Cartier River.

VALCARTIER CAMP, situated 18 miles from Quebec City, is on the Canadian Northern Railway. 30,000 troops are encamped upon this site, consisting of Artillery, Cavalry and Infantry. They are drilling preparatory to embarking for active service in Europe.

On Sunday, Sept. 6th, a general Review took place before Field-Marshal His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, the Staff and the Cabinet.

Manœuvres are being carried out daily by the various arms of the service.

Great interest and enthusiasm are manifest on all hands, and these views will have an abiding interest for all loyal British subjects, whether in Canada, the Mother Country, or abroad.